Publication Development Grant

Value: $7,000 (inclusive of 8.5% ERE) in the form of a stipend. The stipend can be taken in two ways:

1. As a cash payment (however this is subject to tax)
2. As a research fund (housed in your department, and not subject to tax), which can be used for research assistants, hosting symposiums and guest speakers, research materials: for instance, purchasing books, or conference funding)

N.B. This stipend cannot be used for Teaching Buyout.

Opening Date: February 21, 2022

Due Date: April 15, 2022 (for commencement July 1, 2022)

Funding Cycle: There are two proposed cycles: grants with Fall deadlines are funded January 1 - June 30, and those with Spring deadlines are funded July 1 - December 31.

Grant Description:
This grant is open to all tenured or tenure-track faculty in any Humanities unit from any ASU campus.

The Institute for Humanities Research (IHR) Publication Development Grant is designed to provide support for and facilitate publication outputs and boost research track record, in order to enable increased citations, reputation, and competitiveness for external grants.

If selected, recipients will be required to:

- Complete a journal article or book chapter and submit to a well ranked peer-reviewed press/journal either within the funding cycle or up to 6 months following the completion of the grant.
- Submit a final report on completion of the grant about where you have submitted or will submit your article or book chapter; any new methodologies you have implemented.
- Give the IHR advisory board a presentation on the research done and how they could translate it for a public audience so they are then able to
- Apply for an IHR Seed Grant or IHR Cross-Disciplinary Seed Grant, within one year of completing the grant.

Applications Process:

- Application form can be submitted through the InfoReady portal.
- More detailed information and guidelines can be accessed at the InfoReady portal.
• All applications will be reviewed by the IHR Advisory Board.

Terms & Conditions:
Recipients of grants must agree to:

• Recognize the IHR’s support in the acknowledgments section of the book chapter or journal article.

For further information please contact Nicole Anderson (Director): Nicole.Anderson.1@asu.edu.